

To fight against the high cost is to fight against the high cost of reading from the high cost of reading from the high cost of copying the book, how do we solve the calculation, the price of the sky is touching the mood of the teacher is to touch the hardness of the demands from the demands from the demands from the anger of the parents are not obliged to pay the money.

No one tells us the sun says no sun on here don't spread no one says rise the moon to take it there is no one tells the wind who inside i says to the wind who says when someone why does it rain here why does it rain then why does our brother say don't come here run go mama says - play toys don't spread all over the house come to play with papa says outside play, the newsman who inside.