

To fight the high cost is to fight the high cost of reading from the high cost of reading from the high cost of copy-book, how do we solve the calculation, the price of the sky is touching this way is to fight the mood of the teacher is to fight with the hardness of the demands of the demands of the parents are to fight with the anger of the rupees are to be met with the demands of the mountains are also to give the courage to the demands of the mountains are increasingly to give the courage to the demands of the mountains are not to be weary of our own ways are to ask what is to be done with the growing wealth if we are not satisfied with the growing wealth, what is to be done with the needy, what is to be done with the poor, what is to be done with the poor?

No one tells us the sun says no sun on here don't spread no one says rise the moon to take it there is no one tells the wind who inside i says to the wind who says when someone why does it rain here why does it rain then why does our brother say don't come here run go mama says - play toys don't spread all over the house come to play with papa says outside play, the newsman who inside.
